

SOGIE Fundamentals for Mental Health Professionals

A workshop with
Amber Merziotis & Kim Baranek of SOGIE Education

Provided by Family Paths (CEU Provider #62239) in conjunction with Chabot-Las Positas Community College District and Alameda County through Title IV-E Funding.

Target Audience:

This training is geared towards clinical staff, family advocates and community health workers working with foster children and youth in Alameda County. This workshop is available to you free of charge.

Workshop Description

SOGIE is something everyone has! SOGIE is one's sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression. In this workshop we will provide an introduction to SOGIE development, the needs of SOGIE diverse clients (some of whom may identify as LGBTQ+) and inclusive language. This training will explore how to best support youth around SOGIE identity development, caregiver, family and peer acceptance and support and safety issues. The training will provide an opportunity for participants to ask questions and present cases to receive consultation regarding SOGIE. Special attention will be paid to working with children ages 10 and older. The learning will take place in workshop format with the use of presentation, reflection, interactive dialogue and exploration, case examples and consultation with the goal of increasing participants' competency in working with SOGIE diverse clients and their families.

Workshop Goals

- 1) Participants will be able to differentiate between and know basic definitions for sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, and gender expression.
- 2) Participants will understand the rationale to incorporate inclusive practices related to SOGIE.
- 3) Participants will learn therapeutic interventions for working with SOGIE.

The Trainers

Kim Baranek, MPH Kim is a public health professional who has promoted child and youth health in Bay Area schools and communities for 19 years. As a queer gender nonconforming woman, Kim is passionate about building a more accepting world for people of all SOGIEs so that they can thrive as their authentic selves. Through SOGIE Education, Kim provides training and consulting for youth and family agencies and providers. Pulling from her work in youth development and Directing the Youth and Safe Schools Programs at Rainbow Community Center, Kim gives providers an inside view into how to best support youth around SOGIE identity development, school safety issues, and boosting resilience.

Amber Merziotis Amber has a Master's degree from JFK University in Counseling Psychology, specializing in somatic psychology. She is passionate about supporting the spiritual, emotional and physical health of LGBTQ children, youth and families. Amber has eight years of experience providing individual, couple and family therapy around issues relating to SOGIE in myriad environments, including school based outpatient, community clinics and day treatment settings. For the last 4 years, as the LGBTQ Family Advocate for the Youth Acceptance Collaborative through Family Builders, Amber has passionately provided support to children, youth and families around SOGIE. In this role, Amber offers social and emotional support to children and youth, as well as school advocacy, legal and medical navigation for transgender youth. Amber is also a consultant and trainer with SOGIE Education, sharing her expertise as a therapist and advocate to help clinical and paraprofessional providers learn practical interventions to support clients around SOGIE. Through case consultation, Amber gives guidance on: one-one support, navigating healthcare, foster care and child welfare systems, and resourcing clients.

CEUs: Course meets the qualifications for 2.75 hours of continuing education credit for LMFTs, LCSWs, LPCCs, and/or LEPs as required by the California Board of Behavioral Sciences. A 15 minute break will not be included in the total CEU time awarded. CEUs will be awarded in person at the end of the training. Provided by Family Paths, Provider #62239 thru CAMFT CEPA. We will be unable to provide attendees with certificates of completion if more than 15 minutes of each course content is missed.

Training Grievance Policy: Family Paths is committed to providing a work/learning environment in which all individuals are treated with respect and dignity. A participant of trainings has the right to seek a remedy for a dispute or disagreement through Family Path's policies for filing complaints/grievances for participants. Training participants may use available informal means to have decisions reconsidered before filing a formal complaint/grievance. No retaliation of any kind shall be taken against a participant for filing a complaint/grievance. In an effort to provide the highest quality services to participants in our trainings, you are encouraged to report immediately any concerns regarding your training experience to the Clinical Training Coordinator who will provide the complaint form. All participant complaints/grievances should be in writing (which may be in your own language) to the Clinical Training Coordinator, Family Paths, 1727 Martin Luther King Jr. Way, Suite #109 Oakland, CA 94612 or by email to kmichaels@familypaths.org. Once a complaint or grievance has been submitted, you can expect a response no later than ten (10) business days. Upon receipt the Clinical Training Coordinator will conduct a formal review of the complaint/grievance and will attempt a timely resolution, taking appropriate corrective action if warranted by the investigation. If no resolution is forthcoming, or the problem is not satisfactorily resolved, the participant may direct any complaint/grievance to the Program Administrator, Family Paths' Clinical Director.

If you have a complaint about the performance of Family Paths staff or instructors, and/or you feel you or someone else has been treated unfairly or discriminated against you may call 510-893-9230 to speak with the Program Administrator. See Training Grievance Policy for details.
