

Family Paths

B.O.O.S.T.

Building Opportunities and Outreach for Support and Treatment

In order to participate you must be a CalWORKs Welfare to Work (WTW) recipient in Alameda County and be eligible for WTW support services .

B.O.O.S.T. is a program for CalWORKs parents transitioning from welfare to work. The program provides case management, employment support, counseling and substance abuse support.

FOR REFERRAL, CONTACT LORRAINE ALLEN B.O.O.S.T. PROGRAM MANAGER AT FAMILY PATHS:
(510) 893-9230 EXT 239

Our priority is helping parents and caregivers meet their personal, educational and financial goals in order to attain stable lives for themselves and their families.

Over for more information

B.O.O.S.T. EMPLOYMENT SERVICES

Assists Welfare to Work (WTW) participants in becoming job and career ready. The Program uses the Individual Placement and Support (IPS) model to work together to create a career profile, job search plan and job follow-along plan.

B.O.O.S.T. PEER SPECIALIST SERVICES

Assists parents transitioning from WTW. The program provides referrals to parenting and life skills classes, and connections to community and job resources to remove barriers to self sufficiency.

B.O.O.S.T. MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES

Provides office-based therapy for children, parents, caregivers and families. Treatment for our CalWORKs recipients addresses a range of issues including: loss, stress, exposure to trauma, abuse, and family and community violence.

B.O.O.S.T. SUBSTANCE ABUSE SERVICES

Provides supportive services to WTW recipients whose substance use issues present barriers to employment. Assists parents in exploring various residential substance abuse and day treatment programs that would best match their individual needs as a means of removing barriers to self-sufficiency.

FOR REFERRAL CONTACT LORRAINE ALLEN, B.O.O.S.T. PROGRAM MANAGER AT FAMILY PATHS:

(510) 893-9230 EXT 239

Over for more information

